DESCRIPTION

A well-appointed terraced property, located in the heart of Tisbury, within easy reach of the village amenities and mainline train station, with pleasant views over the playing fields and countryside beyond.

The spacious, well-presented accommodation has been recently renovated throughout by the current owner and includes a welcoming porch, further entrance hall, kitchen/Diner, large sitting room with access into the garden, two double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Externally there is a south westerly facing garden along with two private parking spaces, owned by the property.

LOCATION

Tisbury is the principal village in Wiltshire's exceptionally popular and highly sought after Nadder Valley. With beautiful rolling countryside considered widely by many as offering the best walking in the South of England. Simply stunning views coupled with amenities to suit every requirement, it's no wonder The Sunday Times has voted Tisbury in its Top 5 places to live in the UK since 2014.

Tisbury's picturesque, welcoming and thriving High Street is awash with high quality independent shops and services that include a butcher, solicitors, a highly regarded deli, hair salons, a hardware shop, florist, post office, as well as excellent cafés, a wine shop, community leisure centre a pharmacist, dentist and doctors' surgeries to name but a few, Tisbury really does have it all. An excellent primary school is present within the village as well as several very well supported community groups.

The village also offers a mainline railway station that provides services both east and west to Exeter St. Davids and central London respectively with Waterloo being only 1 hour 50 mins away approximately as a direct route. With golf at nearby Rushmore, racing at Salisbury and Wincanton and Messums Art Gallery occupying the Tithe Barn within Tisbury itself, the village really does offer something for everyone and brilliant links to other, local activities.

SERVICES

The property is connected to mains electricity, water, and drainage. Heating is electric, along with having infrared.

The current owner has also replaced the doors and windows in their ownership, along with replacing the hot water system, and has re-plumbed the bathroom. The kitchen has also been replaced, and now has built in appliances including a dishwasher and washer/dryer.

OUTSIDE

The property is accessed off of station road, at the bottom of the Tisbury High Street, where you enter a private parking area, in which the property owns two parking spaces.

There is a south westerly facing garden to the rear, which can be assessed from the sitting room, where you step out onto a patio, perfect for the garden furniture. The rest of the garden is mainly laid to gravel, with low maintenance in mind with planted raised beds. There is a gate at the rear providing access to the parking area.

The garden is enclosed by wooden panel fencing and has a small shed, providing storage.
